mallee country

Located in the sunny north west, on the Sunraysia Hwy, this hidden treasure offers visitors the true 'bush' experience and genuine country hospitality.

The original settlement was known as 'Cronomby Tanks', after the natural waterholes that attracted pioneers to settle in the area. According to local folklore the name was changed in 1897 after a passing traveller riding his trusty steed, Melang, and heading for the water source, rode in over the rise and upon seeing the township laid before him, called "Whoa Melang" and from that day forward the township became known as Woomelang.

Woomelang is in close proximity to major natural tourism attractions such as Wyperfeld National Park, Hattah Kulkyne National Park, Pine Plains, Green Lake, Lake Tyrrell and Lake Lascelles.
